

IHE Vendor Experience

Vedran Boškić
PARSEK - Slovenia

Starting point

- No real guidance on the market
- Lot of subjective/proprietary applications
- Low interaction between market players
- Exhausting integration specification and testing
- Every time is like the first time

Reliability

- Available and detailed IHE documentation
- Strong international IHE community
- Regular updates
- Great for internal know-how dissemination
- Business supporting use cases

Market

- Constantly more regulators adopt IHE
- Public and private procurement requirement
- Required use cases reference to IHE
- Partnership engaging
- IHE Integration Statement
- Conformity Assessment

Benefits

- Development cost effectiveness
- Project reliability
- Best testing at IHE Connectathons
- Know-how sharing
- Reusability
- International application

Thank you
